UPDATE

On Thursday, November 14, our club hosted a spirited Salute to the Military. Special thanks go to Rick Huenefeld, co-chair of the Military Affairs Committee, for lining up the Marine Corps band and honor guard as well as more than 45 military personnel to be our guests last week.

Gift bags were put together containing Charger hats courtesy of Kimberley Layton, a copy of Tough Truths written by our own Deirdre Maloney, gift cards to Starbucks from Peg Eddy, and Jim Fitzpatrick lined up donated chocolates from Terramar, gift certificates from Diane Powers and Sammy Ladeki. Phil Blair and Mel Katz invited ten military veterans who are heading into civilian life; we also hosted flag officers and individuals who support the military in our community. Thanks go to the Rotarians who volunteered to guide our guests to the tables and introduce them to other club members. We are fortunate to have the military in our community and our club did a wonderful job celebrating them and the military veterans in our Rotary family!

ROTARY AUCTION

At our December 5 meeting, the Auction Committee is excited to offer a sneak preview of what to expect at the Auction Luncheon on 12/12/13: The LIST of donated items from our fellow Rotarians for the LIVE and SILENT auction and a "teaser auction" of a bottle of fine wine and a shopping spree to Kobey's. BTW, bring a guest to enjoy the auction!!!

CAMP ENTERPRISE LEGACIES

Got a relative or close friend who's a high school junior? Think about having them come to Camp Enterprise March 13-15. We have a few "legacy" slots that can be filled this way. Contact Michael Anderson or David Oates soon before they fill up!

Cygnet Theatre's, "A Christmas Carol"

Sean Murray, Artistic Director of Cygnet Theatre, is one of the city's most acclaimed directors and actors. In Cygnet's 10 years of existence, the theatre has received 100+ awards for acting, directing, ensemble work, musical and sound arrangements and set design. Cygnet Theatre's live "radio" presentation of the Charles Dickens classic A Christmas Carol returns. Club 33's date to attend is December 6. It's 1944 on Christmas Eve and you are part of the live studio audience as the WCYG Playhouse of the Air players bring the story of Ebenezer Scrooge and his three ghostly visitors to life. Complete with holiday music, vintage commercials and live sound effects, A Christmas Carol is sure to be a treat for the whole family. Murray will describe the rehearsal process and pull back the curtain to let you see how the magic is made.
